Director of Parks and Recreation

Academic:

Master of Science in Leisure and Recreation Management
from Memphis State University
Bachelor of Science in Education from Memphis State University

Professional:

Certified Parks and Recreation Professional from the National Recreation and Parks Association

Pam provides oversight to a $4.9 million budget and permanent and part-time employees in three divisions – parks, recreation and the rangers. She serves on the City's Management Team and has been instrumental in the development of City and departmental goals, performance measures, and strategic plans. She has been a leader in the City's "green" initiatives through implementation of the City's Greenway Master Plan, formation of the Wolf River Nature Area, development of the Wolf River Nature Center project and securing a partnership agreement with the State of Tennessee to manage the Riverwoods State Natural Area located in Germantown.

Pam has been an active member of Tennessee Recreation and Parks Association and National Recreation and Park Association since 1979. She will serve as President of the state organization in 2009 and has held many offices and served on numerous committees as well as serving as chairman of the NRPA Southern Regional Council and Secretary of the American Parks and Recreation Society. These opportunities have allowed her to be well networked with other directors, departments and agencies across the country. She is currently serving on the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation's Recreation Advisory Committee responsible for authoring the Tennessee State Recreation Plan.

Her other strengths include: extensive experience in grant writing and is familiar with state funding sources; strategic planning; recreation and leisure programming and trend analysis; creating community partnerships; budgeting and revenue generation; risk management; and natural resource management.

Locally, Pam is a charter member of the Germantown Civitan Club where she is a member of the executive board. She is also a member of the Wolf River Conservancy, the Germantown Chamber of Commerce, Leadership Germantown Alumni Association and Hope Presbyterian Church.
